Professional Development

Mission Essential Professional Development Categories

Leadership

Development targeted at executive level leadership to improve leadership capacity

Leadership Pipeline

Development focused on next generation leadership –focused on growth mindset, leadership, and instructional best practices

Content Centered

Development centered on building teacher/staff content knowledge and usage

Staff Centered

Development of staff instructional practices from a global level

Community Outreach

Development centered on external stakeholders' knowledge of content, mission, and support

Rapid Response/PLC

Development targeted at grade level teams and individual teachers determined by instructional and observational data – short term coaching cycles

Process Development

Development focused on Human Resources and day to day processes i.e. building safety, financial protocols